Additional Bonds Ordered in the Pitkin Estates.

This morning Judge Frank Martin in probate court issued an order for additional bonds in the Pitkin estates upon which hearings took place Tuesday afternoon. In the estate of Carroll P. Pitkin, he ordered that a $50,000 additional bond, a total of $90,000, be filed in the office, while in the Frank I. Pitkin estate he ordered that $15,000 additional bond, a total of $20,000, be filed. Relative to the hearing on the accounting of the estate of Perley P. Pitkin, a hearing takes place Oct. 24. Before the hearing Tuesday on the petitions, M. L. Wood by his counsel filed his accounts in these estates in probate court. Mr. Wood has recently complied with the court's order for the furnishing of bonds in the Perley P. Pitkin estate by filing therein a bond for $125,000. In the Carroll P. Pitkin estate, it appeared that the administrator has already paid out over and above assets received and excluding assets protected by the bond in the Perley P. Pitkin estate, about $20,000. In the Frank I. Pitkin estate, it appeared that the administrator has paid out, over and above assets received and excluding assets protected by the bond in the Perley P. Pitkin estate, over $45,000. In the last named estate there is already a bond for $5,000.00, as to which the heirs make no question. The court reserved its decision as to the additional bonds asked for until this morning. R. W. Dunsmoor of Burlington was this morning appointed executor of the last will and testament of Irving O. Wales, late of Barre City.

George Blair appeared in city court this morning on the charge of a first offense of intoxication, to which he pleaded guilty, and was fined $5 and costs, which he expected to pay.

News has been received here that Melville Robinson, who recently enlisted in the navy from Barre, has been assigned to the battleship Wisconsin.

Mrs. William Craig, who has been visiting with Mrs. David Spicer, has gone to her home in Waterbury.

Amos Eaton of South Royalton and Harold Bailey of Bradford, connected with the commissioner of agriculture's office, are inspecting potatoes in Washington county this week. They are advising the farmers to retain enough of their crop this year so they will have plenty of seed for next year instead of having to buy as they did last spring, and take chances on getting poor seed.

In order that the farmers may have good seed they are inspecting the potatoes where the rust struck lightest, the purpose being to have these farmers keep the potatoes which are clear of rust or other disease.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Representative Frank Haynes of Orange was a business visitor in the city today.

Mr. Haynes presided at a largely attended Red Cross rally and flag-raising in his home town last evening. An unknown man was arrested on North Main street this morning and locked up in a cell at police headquarters. He will be arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in municipal court this evening on an intoxication charge.

The auction sale conducted at the Bolles farm in Plainfield yesterday was attended by a large number of Barre people, good prices being realized on all the stock. The sale was conducted by D. A. Perry, who is in charge of a sale conducted to-day at the Hollister hill in Marshfield for A. E. Thompson and H. J. Tuttle.

A contest of cards will be staged between the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Catholic Order of Foresters at Knights of Columbus hall on Thursday evening, the competition to be gotten under way as soon as St. John's court shall have finished its regular meeting. The contest is to be the first of a series of friendly tournaments to be played by fraternal societies during the fall and winter.

Cement workers who are engaged in building a cement paved highway on North Main street have passed the second street mark and are still heading north. The appropriation made by the city council with the aid of the state highway department is carrying the job farther along than had been expected and with the present terminus several yards beyond the Second street intersection, the last of the money is not yet in sight. A considerable section of the cement highway is open to traffic and travelers have expressed their satisfaction over the new roadway.

Present indications do not point to a large representation from Barre at the convention of the Greater Vermont association in Rutland Thursday and Friday. Sec. H. A. Phelps of the Barre Board of Trade stated to-day that he had been in correspondence with members of the association and that a sizeable delegation from Barre was desired by the officers. None of the officials of the Board of Trade plans to attend, although Atty. J. W. Gordon expects to go by rail to the convention city and if a number of persons wishing to make the trip can be enlisted an automobile will be chartered for the journey over the mountain.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning were the following people: Guy W. Hill and H. W. Hastings of St. Johnsbury, Amos J. Eaton of South Royalton, H. L. Bailey of Bradford, S. G. Hyams of Montreal, P. Q. Miss Little and Miss Armstrong of New York, Miss Bond of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hethmansperge of Boston, R. W. Reams of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Torrey of New York, Mrs. George R. Clawly, John R. Clawly of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Sanders, A. W. Constance, Frank E. Howard of Clinton, Mass., H. A. Butler of Bellows Falls, T. B. Newcomb of Bellows Falls, O. H. Nelson, C. J. Moulton, E. R. Knight of Northfield, C. W. MacDonald of Boston, C. W. Whittier, P. F. Chapman of East Granville, B. L. Barber of Pittsfield, Patrick Crowley, A. H. Proctor and Louis Ferrani of New York City.

Under the direction of Coaches Hoernle and Early, plans are being made at Goddard seminary for a football schedule. Although sessions were resumed only yesterday, the coaches had a large number of candidates on the field yesterday afternoon, drilling them in the fundamentals of football. A large number of last year's team have been lost by graduation, but the coaches have a fine nucleus of players in Tryon, Smith, Soules, Bridgford, Jacobs and Wallace of last season's squad, and a lot of material, with which, everything indicates at present, the school will have one of the best teams in its history. Arrangements are being made to have games scheduled with several teams in the state. Ralph Smith has been chosen captain of the team, while Harris Soule is filling the position of manager.

A stated convocation of St. Aldebrand commandery, No. 11, K. T., Thursday evening, Sept. 27, at 7:30.

NEAR TAX BILL AGREEMENT
Excess Profits Section Chief Barrier Before Conference.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The war excess profits section of the war tax bill yesterday presented the chief barrier to an agreement by conferees on the measure. Nevertheless hope was expressed that a complete agreement would be effected before the day was over. The controversy was over renewed efforts to substitute a flat rate for the graduated scale put into the bill by the House.

ON BIG TIRE TEST

Four Cars Visit Barre in an Endurance Run.

With the slogan, "Show 'Em No Mercy," figuratively nailed to their masthead, a fleet of four automobiles, a Mercer, an Overland, a Chandler and a lowly flivver, have into Barre to-day on one of the few remaining laps of the tire test which the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. is conducting this year. Aboard the New England outfit, besides the mechanics, pilot, etc., were W. A. Donovan of the Boston branch, H. C. Hadd of Enosburg Falls, who operates with the Boston office, J. Irving Wood, who heads for Burlington when he has done shoeing autos with Goodrich products, and J. R. Ruthford of Burlington, local manager for the same concern. The fleet lifted anchor in Burlington this morning and struck out for the opposite shore, which, in the present instance, was Barre.

It is the custom of the fleet navigators to play about a 10-minute stand in every village and hamlet, a schedule which was adhered to in compassing all the little Jonestowns, Bolton and Duxburys that intervene between this city and Burlington. Here the autoists halted long enough for a grab lunch and to allow the natives an up and down or two. Also, to permit the tire testers to cur away some of the dust of Washington and Chittenden counties acquired in transit. All members of the party were in fine fettle and looking forward rather eagerly to the next lap, which leads across the Connecticut river to Gorham, N. H. The party expects to complete the test by the end of the week and in the interim they will cover a good bit of territory in the White mountains and adjacent hills.

The New England fleet is one of six units operating all over the country. "Show 'Em No Mercy" means that the cars must be run for eight consecutive hours day after day until the tires are literally torn to pieces. They are not to be replaced by other casings until they are completely worn out. Every day at dusk the tires are carefully tested by Mr. Petting, who wires the results of his examination to the Goodrich laboratories in Akron, O. Rubber tread tires were used on the Overland, Chandler and Ford cars which figure in the Atlantic run, so called, and the Silverton corded tires are getting a try-out on the Mercer. After tarrying in Barre, the fleet headed for New Hampshire in mid-forenoon.

AGAIN PROSPERING.

Welsh Tinplate Trade Is Revived by the War.

Swansea, Wales, Sept. 26.—The Welsh tinplate trade, which the late Joseph Chamberlain once described as a "decaying" industry, and which received a severe setback by the McKinley tariff in 1891, is enjoying a prosperity which only the necessary war restrictions are curtailing. Prices have more than trebled during the war, despite the shortage of labor and restriction of supplies of steel bars, and practically every firm is paying or will pay excess profits.

Before the war the basic price of tinplates was 12 shillings and sixpence per box, now as much as 50 shillings is being obtained for "unrestricted" plates, but these rates will cease with the introduction of the government price of 30 shillings.
